

Farah Bahajaj from Singapore

Written by RF Admin

Tuesday, 05 August 2008 01:11

“I’ve been helping out in whatever way i can. It’s always been a pleasure to see how happy the faces of the children, their excitement and Exuberance shines through when they receive the gifts! What’s most touching is that some of them want to share it with their siblings back home.

Though they have little, yet they are willing to share that much!!”

Wassalam,

Farah Bahajaj